A Birds Eye View

By RUSTICANA

Say did you notice the looks on the faces of those Dublin kiddies in the Chronicle pictures last week? Didn't they look a lot more like they were disgusted with their job and each other rather than anxious for the recovery of the obnoxious hunger striker?

Certainly they were registering almost any other attitude rather than a pious and sorrowful one, and if all his sympathizers look as bored as the kiddies do, we haven't much hope of prayers doing him much good. The whole thing is ridiculous. But there's worse than that. That picture of the supposed-to-be-praying kiddies, and the one of McSwiney's wife and child in the previous issue is nothing but Sinn Fein propaganda on the part of the Picture Press by whom the pictures are supplied. What about the large number of wives and children bereft of husband and father by the shooting down of policemen in the pursuit of their duty; i.e. the maintenance of law and order? Why make more fuss over a few pig-headed fanatics than the braver men? Why, indeed, unless this particular picture firm has been bought over by the Sinn Feiners in order to our local paper be better without pictures of any description, rather than those with a yellow tint or savouring of propaganda? Personally we prefer it without and so do quite a number of others. We are willing to own that there is no finer type of citizen anywhere than a real Irishman and just because of this we have no patience with the other kind who would seek to destroy our belief in, and admiration of, the Irish race.

If the Irish determination League can just determine what it really does want, and would determine to come to some arrangement or compromise on the subject with their equally determined fellow Irishmen, out side the League, we feel sure the British parliament would be only too pleased to give it to them for the sake of having the whole profitless business over, so that we can get down to some real work. Meantime we, in Canada, should see to it that we do not either inadvertently or maliciously countenance anything that looks like Sinn Fein propaganda.

And so Premier Meighen has committed himself to the statement that the farmer is a Bolshevik! Well we wish him much joy of his meddling, but assuredly he has not helped to ease our doubts regarding his fitness to be Premier of a country, whose basic industry is farming. In fact, we have made up our minds that he is quite too short-sighted to ever to see far enough beyond the Big Interests (whose mouth-piece he is subservient enough to be) to give the farming cause even "the once over." It has the right to expect from a person in his position. If he had, he would know that through the treatment meted out to these farmers by his patrons he has been enough to make them Bolsheviks, three or four times over, yet by reason of his nature no real farmer seeks reform by any other than the constitutional route. He has sense enough to know that you can't bring order out of chaos. He prefers construction to destruction. The rabid ravings of the Reds have no place in his vocabulary, but lately he has taken time in his busy life to insist upon having a square deal, and with a motto "Equal Rights to All and Favors to None" and on his banner is asking fair play for himself and his family and the industry he represents. And behold, these who have placed burdens on him, in the past, too grievous to be borne, are troubled! They feel that by reason of his wrongs he has reason to be

CARPENTIER AND DEMPSEY MEET FOR THE FIRST TIME

George Carpentier, French heavy-weight champion and Jack Dempsey American champion met for the first time in New York last night at the opening of the boxing show in Madison Square Garden. They were present to witness the first professional bouts under the new Walker law permitting fifteen rounds bouts with decisions in New York State.

Perhaps, after all they've been right to be worried for the organized farmers are enrolling in their thousands in every province. Not as "wreckers" as Mr. Meighen has it, but rather as "righters" of ancient wrongs, and neither wall-eyed politician nor phrase spouting premier can stay their progress.

They are not coming by the Red route, but they'll get there just the same. They love law and order and a settled state of affairs just as much as Mr. Meighen does, but they are not dull enough to fancy that these benefits can be attained by merely theorizing and sloganizing about them. They realize, if they are only modest, that to bring about this so desirable state of affairs as advocated by Meighen, one must change the wording if the policy that is so very responsible for the unrest, discontent and the hardships between classes so much deplored by this glib tongued lawyer, who has become the Premier of Canada by grace of Sir Robert Borden, and the Big Interests—but not by the voice of the people whom he is supposed to represent.

If Mr. Meighen fears this Bolshevism spreading in Canada, as he pretends to do, why does he not cut out the root of the trouble; i.e., the policy of the Government he represents, which oppresses the many to enrich the few? Cutting out a few branches with a slash of autocratic rhetoric, here and there is only strengthening, instead of weakening is especially when he strikes with his eyes shut, as in the case of the farmers.

In the summer time households can do with less meat than at other seasons of the year. As a matter of fact the lighter fare we have the better is our physical condition. What meat is used can be prepared in what I might term summer methods, and these can be effectively displayed in various stews and in a number of cooked meats. Cold and hot savories are an excellent variant to the meat dishes ordinarily in use. Although the savories described below are extremely light, they lack nothing in food value.

MANY KILLED IN WALL STREET EXPLOSION

Troops from Governors Island are of the explosion, corner of Broad and Wall Streets. Bodies of victims may be seen lying in the street.

Livestock Prices

There has been a big reduction in the price of livestock. The farmer is getting little more than half as much for the stock that he sells as he did two years ago. Livestock has sagged from 15¢ cents a pound in May to little more than half of that price now. There has been no appreciable reduction in the price of beef. That cannot go on continually. If the farmer does not get the price, then the consumer is not going to keep on continually and uncompilatingly to pay the high price.

The British Isles are so well supplied with lighthouses and lightships that a vessel sailing round these islands by night, need only be out of sight of a lantern six times.

PRIZE REPORTS

FIRST PRIZE

EDGERTON DISTRICT SCHOOL FAIR

It was a fine day and the fair was a great success. The competition, as you will readily imagine was very great, because there were twelve schools that took part in it. The committee had a very hard time arranging the entries so that each would show off to the best advantage. After the entries had all been taken in and arranged in their proper classes, the judging took place. The judge found it very difficult to decide which of the many exhibits displayed were really the best and most worthy of the prizes.

For the girl in business notation could be more appropriate than this English Piccadilly tailored suit banded ad stitched with white silk and hand Firenze studio.

While the judging was taking place the lunch and sports committees performed their part in the programme of the day. The Ladies Institute served lunch to all the school children between twelve and one o'clock. Immediately after which the sports tended by Messrs. Clendenan, Spornitz and Wheeler. Beside the usual twenty-five, fifty, and seventy-five yard dashes, were the fatigue, potato, wheelbarrow, and relay races.

Then came what was to the Edgerton school at least, one of the most exciting events of the day, the basketball game. Edgerton vs. Aspen. In which Edgerton was successful; but it must be remembered however that Edgerton had a better school than Aspen and therefore has a larger bunch of size to choose from and they are more of a size than the Aspen team; and so doubt Aspen would have had a better result had not one of their best players been sick, and in her place they had substituted a much smaller girl.

When the game was over all went back to the exhibition hall to see what prizes they had won.

After the speech by the Inspector of the district, on "How we can improve on our future school fairs" the prize money was given out. It is thought that the winner of the most prizes at the fair was Pearl Davis from the Arm Lake school.

The latest but not least important part of the programme finished the much enjoyed day. It was the Basketball game between Chauvin and Edgerton. Chauvin won by several points. Although the Edgerton played well for the experience they had had beside the fatigue of the day. After they have had a few weeks more practice they will be a more equal match for Chauvin.

Let us each begin now to work and plan for next year's fair, to make it an even greater success than this one.

EDGERTON SCHOOL

DISTRICT FAIR

The school fair of Edgerton was arranged to be held Sept 24th, the disagreeable weather was postponed until the following Friday. The weather on October 16th first was all that could be desired.

The day of settlement for the twelve schools, surrounding Edgerton began with entries, numerous in every class, which were carried to the Agricultural building, east of town. Every class was well represented, but a few classes exceeded the others in number and quality, such as vegetables, drawings, and writing.

By eleven-thirty a.m. all exhibits were arranged for judgement.

A free lunch was served by the Women's Institute of our town at the baseball grounds. It was enjoyed by all the children of the schools interested in the fair.

The lunch was followed by the sports, the prizes of which were generously given by the citizens of Edgerton, and were successfully superintended by Mr. Clendenan, Mr. Spornitz and Mr. Wheeler. The sports opened with high jumping, and girls races. The other events, twenty in number ran off in order and with determination to win.

A basket ball game followed, Edgerton the victor. Meanwhile the judges had completed their work, and all went hurriedly to the scene of the hubbub.

In the evening Chauvin played Edgerton a game of basket ball, being successful by seventeen points.

The excitement closed with a dance given by the Edgerton Orchestra.

Our Weekly Sermon GO FORWARD

Ex. 14:15. Speak unto the children of Israel that they go forward.

These words were spoken at a critical time at the very outset of the life of the Israelites. The Egyptian army was pressing upon them with chariots and horses, and they had no means of defence. The sea lay behind them and they had no means of crossing it. They complained to Moses, and spoke of graves and dying in the wilderness. Moses kept a bold front, and told them the Lord would fight for them. He believed the divine voice said: "Wherefore criest thou unto Me? Speak unto the children of Israel that they go forward. It was an inspiring word to them and it may be to us.

These words contain all that is to be and about human progress. They express the fact that progress is to be the law of men's affairs. They explain the Divine purpose which marks itself in their story of humanity. We can profitably look back upon the past if we seek lessons for the future.

The words indicate the directions in which progress should be made. The first is to more knowledge. Progress in knowledge is essential in order to make progress in all other lines. Sir Isaac Newton, towards the close of his illustrious life, spoke of himself as a child who had gathered a few shells on the shore of a boundless sea. That was the way Paul felt in regard to spiritual matters, that there were yet hidden treasures of wisdom and knowledge. Such has been the aim of the Christian church ever since.

Spurgeon gives three recommendations:

(1) Make great efforts to acquire information, especially the Bible.
(2) Learn to discriminate between things that differ.

(3) Hold firmly what you have learned.

Go forward is summons to individuals and to the Church to advance in Christian character. No worthy basis of belief can be formed without a foundation unless it is built upon.
So the command is: Go forward, build up yourselves on your most holy faith. Add to your faith courage, to courage knowledge, to knowledge temperance, to temperance patience, to patience godliness, to godliness brotherly kindness, and to brotherly kindness love.

Another direction is to fuller service. Spiritual thought and emotion are not the whole of religion. Out of this inner experience must grow a life devoted to good works. "Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world."

The story in this chapter suggest three hindrances: (1) We shall not go forward if we keep looking back.
(2) We shall not progress if we simply make time and, (3) fear may hinder us.

Game Regulations

A Copy of the game regulations for the 1920 season is to hand from the chief game warden. Of important interest is the announcement that trapping of muskrats south of the North Saskatchewan river is prohibited at all times. This prohibition will continue for a sufficient time to enable the rats to again become reasonably plentiful as at present there is scarcely any of these animals to be found in any section of the southern half of the province.

Deer, moose and caribou can be hunted during November, and up to Dec. 14. Duck and geese season ends Dec. 14. Grouse, prairie chicken and partridge season is on from Oct. 15 to the end of Nov. Hungarian partridge can be shot all through October. Mink, fisher, marten can be trapped, November, December, January, February and March while other can be trapped from November to the end of April. Muskrat can be trapped north of the Saskatchewan river from November until the end of April.

The Slump In Wheat

There is a general opinion among grain men in this part of the country that the recent slump in the price of wheat, which has been creating an uncertain and panicky condition not only among grain sellers but among all producers, might have been avoided had the policy of national marketing been continued. Grain dealers themselves do not deny that the slump might have been avoided entirely or at least have been greatly modified, had the old Canada Wheat Board continued to operate.

There was no real objection urged when the administration of the Canada Wheat Board was carried on very successfully. It got for the farmer for his grain more than he expected. It conducted the business in a most businesslike manner.

There was only one argument used when the change back was made. That was that grain was being marketed by a national organization rather than by private organizations.

Members of the government, if we are not mistaken, were insistent that we should get back to pre-war conditions as speedily a possible. If we had learned anything during the war which would be of permanent value to the economy of national marketing of grain, we should forget it as speedily as possible. That was practically the only argument of explanation used.

And the government acted. And grain conditions rapidly became chaotic, and speculation ensued with as much freedom as before the war, and the slump came, which threatens not merely the grain trade, but other business. This would have been prevented, perhaps, certainly much modified, under the system of national marketing.

The government, of course, can restore the system of national marketing at some little inconvenience and loss. But the lesson that we should not abandon something of real value learned during the war, merely to become like we were in pre-war days, has been learned at some considerable cost.

Teach the Children to Save

Habits are acquired early in life. Children, who are taught the value of money and the habit of saving, grow up into good business men and capable women.

The easiest way to teach children to save, is to start a Savings Account for each child ($1.00 each is sufficient). After a child has saved another dollar to make an additional deposit, he or she will have a better appreciation of just what a dollar stands for, and how much work and self-denial it represents.

Visiting Members Welcome40,000 Cars Needed

The service of forty thousand railway cars will be needed for the transportation of this year's grain crops from the western district of the Canadian National Railways, officials of the amalgamated lines estimated recently.

From this territory it is estimated that the harvest to be removed by the National railway will include twenty-seven million bushels of wheat, twenty million bushels of oats, five hundred and fifty thousand bushels of flax; two million bushels of barley and fifty thousand bushels of rye.

From these figures, officials of the Canadian National railways point out the task of providing sufficient cars and an adequate grain transportation service will be a gigantic one. They added there is bound to be a car shortage. With an exceptionally heavy harvest, such a contingency cannot possibly be avoided, they say.

But present and past arrangements will result in the shortage being as light as possible under the circumstances and grain growers generally are asked to co-operate with the railway company in their effort to move all grains with a minimum of inconvenience to the shippers.

Favors Reduction Of The Tariff

Reduction of the tariff to give the farmers opportunities to buy in the open market, was requested by the Hon. Duncan Marshall, provincial minister of agriculture, who was the chief witness before the tariff commission sitting at Edmonton recently.

"Alberta farmers have to compete in the open market for the sale of their goods. All that they ask is that they have the privilege of buying implements of production in the same manner. The reduction of the tariff burden will enable them to prosper," he said.

"The increase of exports will bring revenue to the Dominion this year and the best means of securing this increase will be to remove the tariff on farm implements," he continued.

He pointed out that the farmer cannot possibly benefit by the present tariff. He has to compete in the open market for the sale of his crops. As an example, Mr. Marshall pointed out that this year no British buyers were in the market and the consequently the price of wheat has undergone fluctuations which will mean money lost to every farmer.

He asked that the Dominion government demand that the British government act fairly toward the Canadian livestock grower and remove the embargo on cattle.

Mr. Marshall continued by asserting that the development of the livestock trade in the Dominion is a matter of vital importance and that the embargo maintained by the British government is an example of protection carried to the limit.

He concluded by asking that the basis, and the element of protection deduced.

No More Luxury Tax?

There is a strong probability that the coming session of parliament will see considerable variation in the taxation measures of the government.

The business profits tax is likely to go, and possibly the luxury tax may be replaced by the sales tax. It will be recalled that the business tax was renewed this year despite very strong objections from business interests, which represented it to be an impediment to commercial and industrial expansion. The minister of finance took the stand that money had to be raised, and this was a tried and proven source of revenue. The additional taxes levied and the revenues accruing from them suggest the dropping of the tax on business in the next budget. There is also talk, but less of it, of modifying the luxury tax.

The suggestion of the minimum price that now seems to be generally endorsed by both the grain sellers and the grain buyers as the next best thing to the national marketing of the commodity.

Now that they have refined the burlesque show, a man will have to stay out on the street if he wants to see legs.

The news is that the Bolshevik is almost at the end of its tether, which is not surprising. The Soviet has lasted longer than many believed it would, and longer than it could in any country, except Russia.

Canadian sugar refiners are using all possible methods to prevent Canadian people from getting any advantage of the cheap sugar across the line, and are likely to get the assistance of the government.

It is possible that the Canadian wheat board could not have held back entirely the slump in wheat when the rush began, but there is a very strong possibility that it would have helped.

A total of sixty-two Victorix Crosses were awarded to members of the Canadian Expeditionary forces during the great war.

Profisher and Settle both commented on the way the inhabitants around Hudson's Bay used to eat grass, country porcupine, they pluck and eat not daintily and snail-wise, but like brute beasts.

A famous naturalist, who cooked part of a box-constrictor declared that it tasted very much like veal. On another occasion he tested a scorpion and pronounced the flesh excellent.

Instead of sewing up the fourth side of cushion covers, sew on a few patent fasteners. This will save you time and trouble, as well as saving the wear and tear of the cover.

Your eyes burn, your head aches and you feel all out of sorts the next day. Much cheaper to have your eyes properly tested and glasses fitted so you can read with comfort and save your energy which is now being used up unconsciously in your effort to see. Consult C. C.
